

MOUNT WOLF Morgan L. "Muggs" Gingerich, 87, died at 1:40 p.m. Thursday, July 19, 2007, at Providence Place in Dover. He was the husband of Fae E. (Krebs) Gingerich whom he married 65 years ago on October 25, 1941. Morgan was born March 21, 1920, in Pleasureville. He was the son of the late Lewis and Cordie (Snyder) Gingerich. He worked at Kahn-Lucas in Columbia for 12 years before retiring in 1996. Previously, he was employed by Hollis Manufacturing in Wrightsville for over 20 years. Morgan proudly served in the United States Medical Corps during WWII. He was a member of Artisans Lodge in Philadelphia, Hawks Gunning Club, and Community United Methodist Church in Saginaw. In addition to his wife, Morgan is survived by two sons, Lou Gingerich of York and Thomas Gingerich of Mt. Wolf; two grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and one sister, Letha Holtzapple of York. He was preceded in death by a grand daughter, Joanne Gawronski. His funeral service will begin at 2 p.m. Tuesday, July 24, 2007, at The Diehl Funeral Home & Cremation Center, 87 S. Main St., Mt. Wolf. Viewing will be from 1 to 2 p.m. Tuesday at the funeral home. Burial will be in Manchester Union Cemetery, Manchester. Officiating at his service will be Chaplin Peter Edwards from Providence Place in Dover. Those planning an expression of sympathy may wish to consider Community United Methodist Church, 765 Market St., Mount Wolf, PA 17347; or the Alzheimer's Association, 3544 N. Progress Ave., Suite 205, Harrisburg, PA 17110.

Published in the York Daily Record & York Dispatch from 7/21/2007 - 7/22/2007.