

Lisa A. Chantiles-Shermeyer

2001

Spring Garden Township

Lisa A. Chantiles-Shermeyer of Spring Garden Township died at 4 a.m. Nov. 15 at her residence. She was 41.

Mrs. Shermeyer retired from West York Area Junior High School as a music educator. More recently, she was a musician and a private music educator.

She was a member of The Episcopal Church of St. John the Baptist.

She was a flautist with the York Symphony Orchestra, having joined the orchestra at the age of 15. She was a member for 25 years and was the youngest person to have been a member of the orchestra.

She was a member of the Spring Garden Band, the Old Timer's Club, York Junior Symphony Orchestra, York Youth Symphony, Emigsville Band, National Flute Association and Millersville University Symphonic Band.

She was a former member of the Music Educators National Conference and the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association.

She participated in the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Band Festival in 1985 and 1987.

She received the Louis Vynner Award from the Millersville University Music Department Faculty in 1987, the National Collegiate Music Award in 1987, the Sultner Memorial Scholarship from the

Mrs. Shermeyer retired from West York Area Junior High School as a music educator. More recently, she was a musician and a private music educator.

She was a member of The Episcopal Church of St. John the Baptist.

She was a flautist with the York Symphony Orchestra, having joined the orchestra at the age of 15. She was a member for 25 years and was the youngest person to have been a member of the orchestra.

She was a member of the Spring Garden Band, the Old Timer's Club, York Junior Symphony Orchestra, York Youth Symphony, Emigsville Band, National Flute Association and Millersville University Symphonic Band.

She was a former member of the Music Educators National Conference and the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association.

She participated in the Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Band Festival in 1985 and 1987.

She received the Louis Vynner Award from the Millersville University Music Department Faculty in 1987, the National Collegiate Music Award in 1987, the Sultner Memorial Scholarship from the York Symphony Association in 1986 and 1987, and the Millersville University Music Department Scholarship in 1984.

She was a volunteer for York Wildcare.

She was a 1978 graduate of William Penn Senior High School and graduated in 1987 from Millersville University with a bachelor of science degree in music education.

Born in York Aug. 18, 1960, she was a daughter of Pete J. and Delores Clements Chantiles of York.

She also leaves her husband of three years, Mark D. Shermeyer; and two sisters, Georgia Chantiles-Ruby of Towson, Md., and Diane Chantiles-Brant of Wrightsville.

There is no viewing. After cremation, a memorial service is at 10 a.m. tomorrow at The Episcopal Church of St. John the Baptist, 140 N. Beaver St., with the Rev. David W. Lovelace officiating. Visitation is in the Parish Hall of the church after the service.

Burial is in the Memorial Garden of The Episcopal Church of St. John the Baptist.

Memorial contributions may be made to SPCA of York County, 66 Big Mount Road, Thomasville 17364; or to The Memorial Fund of The Episcopal Church of St. John the Baptist, 140 N. Beaver St., York 17403; or to The York Symphony Orchestra, 10 N. Beaver St., York 17401.

Etzweiler Funeral Home, 1111 E. Market St., is in charge of arrangements.